

On the Go

for Commuters

NEWS FOR SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COMMUTERS

SEPTEMBER
2014

Pledge to Rideshare & Win

California Rideshare Week—which celebrates alternatives to driving alone for cleaner air and less traffic—is Oct. 6-10. It's your chance to discover a faster, cheaper way to get to work, such as carpooling, vanpooling, riding bus or rail or biking or walking.

And when you make the pledge to rideshare at least one day during the week, you'll qualify to win electronics, getaways, gift cards and other prizes.

To participate, contact your employer for information about what's happening at your worksite. Or visit your local rideshare agency online to make the pledge and find out about other Rideshare Week activities.

Here's some of what's happening...

Los Angeles County

Do you regularly rideshare? Trying it for the first time during Rideshare Week? Metro wants to hear your rideshare story! They'll be featuring some of them on their blog, The Source. Go to metro.net/rideshare and tell them your rideshare story—and while you're there, make the pledge for a chance to win prizes.

Orange County

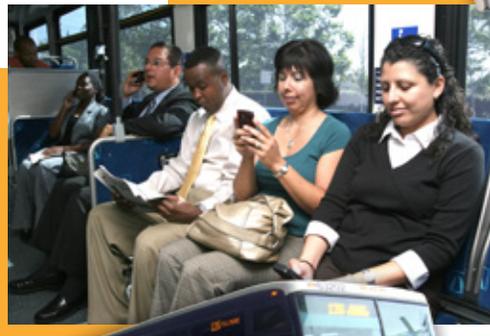

When you pledge to rideshare at octa.net/pledge you'll receive a special URL to share with friends, family and coworkers via your favorite social media sites. If three of the people you referred also make the pledge, you'll have a chance to win a $50 gift card, in addition to the pledge drawings.

San Bernardino County

If you live or work in the Inland Empire, go to Iecommuter.org to pledge to win any of 109 prizes, including gift cards valued up to $250, a folding bike, and getaways to Palm Springs, Las Vegas, Lake Arrowhead and other great destinations.

Ventura County

Expand your social network by pledging to share the ride at goventura.org for a chance to win Apple iPads, iPods and gift cards valued at $100, and then be sure to share your rideshare experiences via your own social networks, whether Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, or the company Intranet. Use the hashtags #sharetheride and #vctcrsw2014.

FlyAway to LAX

Los Angeles World Airports is expanding its FlyAway daily bus service to LAX, now offering routes from Santa Monica and Hollywood. For details and schedule, go to laxflyaway.org.

A Life-Saving Reminder...

It's not enough to stay off train tracks when a train is coming—you need to keep your distance entirely. Because trains are wider than the actual tracks, even being nearby can put your life at risk.

In honor of California Rail Safety Month, Metrolink is issuing the reminder, "See tracks? Think train!"

For more life-saving tips and an entertaining safety video, visit metrolinktrains.com/safety.

On the Go for Commuters is a service of your county transportation agencies